STATE OF TEXAS)

COUNTY OF KENDALL)

MARK A. ULFIG, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I am the President and Chief Executive Officer of plaintiff On The Move, Inc.
("Plaintiff" or "OTM").

2. I make this affidavit in support of OTM's motion for an order compelling compliance with previous orders of the Court and for an order of contempt directed against defendants Trucknology, Inc. a/k/a The Bronx Rental Corp. ("Trucknology") and Eugene Greenbaum ("Greenbaum," collectively with Trucknology, "Defendants") for their purposeful flouting of the Court's Order Confirming Orders of Seizure, dated May 14, 2008 (the "Confirming Order"), which confirmed the ex parte Orders of Seizure and Temporary Restraining Orders granted to OTM on April 10, 2008 and April 24, 2008 (collectively, the "Orders of Seizure"). (The Confirming Order and the Orders of Seizure are annexed hereto as Exhibits A and B, respectively.)

3. Specifically, despite defendant Greenbaum's representations to the United States Marshal for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Marshal") that he could not "account" for several of the missing trucks (the "Trucks") at issue here, almost two months after the U.S. Marshal executed on the Orders of Seizure, and almost one month after the Court issued its Confirming Order, the Yonkers police pulled over one of the Trucks and impounded it as a stolen vehicle. As described in detail below, it was thereafter discovered that Greenbaum, on behalf of Trucknology, was continuing to rent out the Truck to third parties. It also was discovered that Greenbaum has been instructing his employees to change fraudulent "temporary" plates on the Trucks in his possession every 20 days, most likely to elude detection of the Trucks as stolen property.

4. It is beyond real argument that Defendants have purposefully flouted the relevant Orders of this Court, forcing OTM to make this motion because of their contumacious behavior, specifically their interference with the seizure by the U.S. Marshal of the Trucks, including their failure to turn over the Trucks that remain wrongfully in their possession, as well as their continuing to operate, conceal and lease the Trucks, all to Plaintiff's detriment and all despite clear Court Orders prohibiting such conduct.

Background

5. By way of brief background, OTM commenced this action against Defendants for the recovery of the Trucks, as well as for breach of contract, conversion, and declaratory and injunctive relief.

6. OTM moved for the Orders of Seizure and Temporary Restraining Order without notice to the Defendants based on their blatant, groundless and continuing refusal to return the Trucks, which are by their very nature mobile.

7. The Orders of Seizure granted by the Court, in relevant part, state as follows:

- it appears from the Papers that Plaintiff is entitled to possession of the chattel, that is the trucks (the 'Property') . . . , that the Trucks are being wrongfully withheld by defendants . . . , and that unless such Order is granted ex parte the Property may become unavailable for seizure by reason of being transferred, concealed, disposed of, or removed from the State of New York or will become substantially impaired in value;
- Plaintiff, on whose behalf the Court issues this Order, is authorized under the supervision and with the assistance of the United States Marshall [sic] . . . , to take all necessary steps to secure and remove the following property: 49 trucks, that is, the Property, as set out on the schedule of inventory immediately annexed hereto, located at [1130] and [1144] Zerega Avenue, Bronx, New York 10462 (the 'Premises');
- anyone interfering with the execution of this Order is subject to arrest by the U.S. Marshal and/or his or her representative; and
- Defendants, their members, officers, employees, servants, agents, attorneys, affiliates, subsidiaries, and all other persons acting on behalf of or in concert with Defendants, are enjoined and restrained from operating, concealing, parting with, disposing of or transferring the Property.

8. On April 25, 2008, pursuant to the Orders of Seizure, the U.S. Marshal seized 35 trucks from Trucknology's Bronx location. (At the direction of the U.S. Marshal, one additional Truck was provided by Defendants after April 25.)

9. The Marshal did not recover all of the Trucks, however, and several trucks remained missing. A copy of the spreadsheet, marked up and signed by the U.S. Marshal, noting both the Trucks that were seized and listing the Trucks that remained missing, is annexed as Exhibit C.

10. Greenbaum could not "account" for the majority of the Trucks that were missing from Trucknology's premises on the date of the seizure. Thereafter, however, OTM was able to either locate certain missing Trucks or, through its repossession agent, recover others from Defendants.

11. While OTM was able to account for the vast majority of the Trucks, three (3) “HINO” trucks (the “HINO Trucks”) were never located and Greenbaum continued to profess ignorance as to their whereabouts. Notably, the HINO Trucks are late model, are in very good condition and have a high re-sale value, unlike the majority of the Trucks that OTM was able to recover with the assistance of the U.S. Marshal or through its repossession agent. (A schedule which contains OTM’s file number for the HINO Trucks, the HINO Truck’s vehicle identification number (“VIN”), and a description of each HINO Truck, is annexed hereto as Exhibit D.)

12. As of this date, Defendants also have failed to turnover or account for another vehicle leased to them and under their control. This vehicle is a 2005 Ford E-350 (the “Ford Truck”). (OTM’s file number for the missing Ford Truck, its VIN, and a description of the missing Ford Truck, is included within the schedule annexed hereto as Exhibit D.)

13. On April 30, 2008, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 64 and N.Y. CPLR 7102(d)(4), OTM moved to confirm the Orders of Seizure, which motion, as stated, was granted by the Court on May 14, 2008.

14. At no point have Defendants ever set forth any defense to OTM’s ownership and superior right to the Trucks, perhaps because they have no such defense, and nor have they ever defended their blatant, groundless and continuing refusal to return the Trucks.

Defendants’ Contumacious Actions, Including Using Stolen Property for Their Benefit

15. Despite Greenbaum’s representations to the U.S. Marshal that he could not “account” for several of the missing Trucks, including the HINO Trucks, on June 12, 2008, almost two months after the U.S. Marshal had executed on the Orders of Seizure, and almost one month after the Court issued its Confirming Order, the Yonkers police pulled over one of the

HINO Trucks and impounded it as a stolen vehicle. The Truck subsequently was released to OTM as its owner. (A copy of the Yonkers Police Department report is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.)

16. During the course of the police investigation, it was discovered that Greenbaum, on behalf of Trucknology, had rented the HINO Truck for $600 per week to the gentlemen who were found driving the Truck. It was also discovered that Greenbaum has been instructing his employees to change the fraudulent "temporary" plates on the Trucks in his possession every 20 days.

17. Specifically, the statement of Mark A. Lorenzo, who upon information and belief was in the Truck on the day it was impounded as stolen by the Yonkers police, relates the following:

While on South Broadway we got stopped by the police and they told us the truck was stolen. My boss rented the truck from Truckology at 1130 Zerega Ave. Bronx New York. My boss rents the truck long term and he pays the boss Gene approximately $600.00 a week. Gene is a white male approximately 40 years old and I believe he is the owner of Truckology Truck rental. Gene instructed his workers to change the temporary Texas plates every 20 days and when I was with him the plates were changed three different times and they always had the number 099 on it.

(Emphasis added.) A copy of Mr. Lorenzo's sworn statement is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

18. A second sworn statement of another gentlemen, Juan Andujar, who upon further information and belief also was in the Truck on the day it was impounded as stolen by the Yonkers police, is annexed hereto as Exhibit G. Mr. Andujar's statement is consistent in all respects with Mr. Lorenzo's.

19. Therefore, it is clear that Defendants have not complied with the Court's Confirming Order and Orders of Seizure, including by failing to comply with the direction that they not interfere with the U.S. Marshal's seizure of the Trucks, and are continuing to operate, conceal and lease the Trucks to OTM's detriment.

20. As for Mr. Lorenzo and Mr. Andujar's statement concerning Greenbaum's directing his employees to change the Texas temporary plates every 20 days, all of which have the number "099," attached hereto as Exhibit H is a copy of one such fraudulent Texas temporary plate. While on a visit to the auction house which is storing and selling OTM's vehicles, I removed this fraudulent temporary plate from one of OTM's Trucks that was seized from Defendants. Notably, at the auction house, there were several other vehicles owned by OTM that had been recovered from Defendants with fraudulent Texas temporary plates. All the temporary plates contained the same serial number, "099," along with a fraudulent date of sale.

21. I know from my industry experience that Texas temporary plates are serially numbered, that is, every such plate has a different number, and therefore it is impossible for multiple plates to legitimately have the same serial number, "099." Plates also expire 20 days from the stated date of sale.

22. Upon information and belief, it is clear that Greenbaum obtained possession of a temporary Texas plate, photocopied that plate, and filled in false information on the plate, that is, that his company "Truck Maxx" was the "Buyer" of the vehicle, and inserted false dates of sale. Of course, OTM, and not "Truck Maxx" or any other entity affiliated with Defendants, is the owner of the Trucks, which were purchased on dates other than those set forth on the fraudulent Texas temporary plates.

23. Based on Defendants' blatant flouting of the relevant Orders, and other contumacious behavior, it is respectfully requested that the Court issue: (a) an Order compelling Defendants to comply with the Confirming Order and Orders of Seizure and deliver the property which remains in its possession, that is the two (2) missing HINO Trucks and the missing Ford Truck, to the U.S. Marshal, on a date set by the U.S. Marshal, or to OTM or its agents within two (2) business days of the Court's order on the instant motion; (b) an Order of Contempt (i) assessing fines in an amount to be set by the Court if Defendants fail to turn over the property within the date set by the Marshal or the two (2) day time period if delivered to OTM or its agents; (ii) assessing damages against Defendants in the amount of $10,000 for failing to turn over the property at issue and depriving Plaintiff of the use thereof, and forcing OTM to incur additional expenses to recover its property;¹ (iii) awarding reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Plaintiff in being forced to make the instant motion; and an Order awarding such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Mark A. Ufig

ORDERED that Plaintiff, on whose behalf the Court issues this Order, will act as substitute custodian of any and all Property seized pursuant to this Order and shall hold harmless the U.S. Marshals Service and its employees from any and all claims, asserted in any court or tribunal, arising from any acts, incidents, or occurrences in connection with the seizure and possession of the Property, including any third-party claims, and it is further ORDERED that the U.S. Marshall is directed to serve the person or entity from whose possession the Property is seized and Defendants with a certified copy of this Order along with

Today while I was working with my boss James Wixen delivering groceries. While on South Broadway we got stopped by the police and they told us the truck was stolen. My boss rented the truck from truckology at 1130 Zerega Ave. Bronx New York. My boss rents the truck long term and he pays the boss Gene approximately $600.00 a week. Gene is a white male approximately 40 years old and I believe he is the owner of Truckology Truck rental. Gene instructed his workers to change the temporary Texas plates every 20 days and when I was with him the plates were changed three different times and they allways had the number 099 on it.

STATE OF NEW YORK)

COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

ROSEMARY HALLIGAN, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I am a member of Stern, Tannenbaum & Bell LLP, counsel for plaintiff On The Move, Inc. ("Plaintiff" or "OTM") in this action.

2. I make this affidavit in support of OTM's motion for an order compelling compliance with previous orders of the Court and for an order of contempt directed against defendants Trucknology, Inc. a/k/a The Bronx Rental Corp. ("Trucknology") and Eugene Greenbaum ("Greenbaum," collectively with Trucknology, "Defendants") for their purposeful flouting of the Court's Order Confirming Orders of Seizure, dated May 14, 2008 (the "Confirming Order"), which confirmed the ex parte Orders of Seizure and Temporary Restraining Orders granted to OTM on April 10, 2008 and April 24, 2008 (collectively, the "Orders of Seizure"). (The Confirming Order and the Orders of Seizure are annexed to the accompanying affidavit of Mark Ulfig as Exhibits A and B, respectively.)

3. The accompanying affidavit of Mark Ulfig, President and Chief Executive Officer of OTM (the "Ulfig Affidavit"), sets forth Defendants' contumacious behavior that clearly warrants the Court granting OTM's motion to compel and for contempt. The limited purpose of my affidavit is to set forth the legal standards relevant to the instant motion, which are plainly applicable here.

4. In brief, however, as set forth in greater detail in the Ulfig Affidavit and as amply demonstrated therein and by the exhibits annexed thereto, despite defendant Greenbaum's representations to the United States Marshal for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Marshal") that he could not "account" for several of the missing trucks (the "Trucks") at issue here, almost two months after the U.S. Marshal executed on the Orders of Seizure, and almost one month after the Court issued its Confirming Order, the Yonkers police pulled over one of the Trucks and impounded it as a stolen vehicle. As described in detail below, it was thereafter discovered that Greenbaum, on behalf of Trucknology, was continuing to rent out the Truck to third parties. It also was discovered that Greenbaum has been instructing his employees to change fraudulent "temporary" plates on the Trucks in his possession every 20 days, most likely to elude detection of the Trucks as stolen property.

5. Defendants also have other Trucks of Defendants that they have failed to account for, despite that several months have passed since the relevant Orders were issued and executed upon.

6. As to the applicable legal standards, specifically as to that prong of OTM's motion to compel Defendants to comply with the Confirming Order and Orders of Seizure, it is simply beyond real argument that the Court has the authority and the power to direct a party, such as Defendants, to comply with its previously issued orders, in this case, the Confirming

Order and the Orders of Seizure. See Kahmann v. Reno, 967 F. Supp. 731 (N.D.N.Y. 1997) (“[i]t is simply common sense that when a court orders a defendant to provide plaintiff a remedy that is justified and within the law, the court must have the power to assure that the defendant complies with the order. Otherwise, neither the remedy nor the original order would have meaning.”)

7. As to OTM’s motion for contempt, a party may be held in contempt where, as here, the plaintiff establishes that (1) the court order or decree was clear and unambiguous, (2) proof of non-compliance is clear and convincing, and (3) defendant has not been reasonably diligent and energetic in attempting to comply. Chao v. Gotham Registry, Inc. 514 F.3d 280, 292 (2d Cir. 2008).

8. The power to punish for contempt is an inherent power of the federal courts. People by Abrams v. Terry, 45 F.3d 17, 23 (2d Cir. 1995); see also Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43, 111 S. Ct. 2123 (1991) (“courts of justice are universally acknowledged to be vested, by their very creation, with power to impose silence, respect, and decorum in their presence, and submission to their lawful mandates”).

9. Federal courts have the ability to fashion the appropriate sanction for conduct that violates a federal court order. Chambers, 501 U.S. at 35-36, 45 (imposition of $25,000 fine for civil contempt stemming from a violation of a preliminary injunction proper).

10. Finally, when a party, such as Defendants here, has disobeyed a court order, it is appropriate for the court to grant attorneys’ fees in favor of the party bringing an action for contempt. Chambers, 501 U.S. at 44-45 (the “American Rule” which prohibits fee shifting in most cases does not apply where a party is in “willful disobedience of a court order”).

11. As the accompanying Ulfig affidavit shows, it is beyond real argument that Defendants have purposefully flouted the relevant Orders of this Court, which were clear on their face, forcing OTM to make this motion because of their contumacious behavior, specifically their interference with the seizure by the U.S. Marshal of the Trucks, including their failure to turn over the Trucks that remain wrongfully in their possession, as well as their continuing to operate, conceal and lease the Trucks, all to Plaintiff's detriment and all despite clear Court Orders prohibiting such conduct.

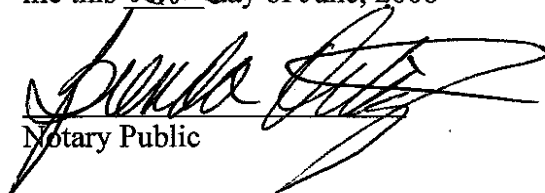

12. Accordingly, the motion to compel and for contempt should be granted in all respects, and it is respectfully requested that the Court issue: (a) an Order compelling Defendants to comply with the Confirming Order and Orders of Seizure and deliver the property which remains in its possession, to the U.S. Marshal, on a date set by the U.S. Marshal, or to OTM or its agents within two (2) business days of the Court's order on the instant motion; (b) an Order of Contempt (i) assessing fines in an amount to be set by the Court if Defendants fail to turn over the property within the date set by the Marshal or the two (2) day time period if delivered to OTM or its agents; (ii) assessing damages against Defendants in the amount of $10,000 for failing to turn over the property at issue and depriving Plaintiff of the use thereof, and forcing OTM to incur additional expenses to recover its property;¹ (iii) awarding reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Plaintiff in being forced to make the instant motion; and an Order awarding such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

¹ The amount of requested damages is a conservative estimate of the money OTM has lost by being deprived of the use of its property, as well as the costs incurred in being forced to seize its property. Further, the requested damage amount only encompasses the time period since the April 25, 2008 seizure, and does not seek to address the damages incurred over the many months before that date when Defendants willfully, and without any justification, refused to turn over OTM's property.
